Islip, NY –The Islip Town Council recently honored the Third Precinct of the Suffolk County Police Department for their assistance in the Fourth of July fireworks show, the first in the town in over twenty years.

"The event was a great success and a lot of that can be credited to the Suffolk County Police," said Islip Town Supervisor Nolan. “It was thanks to their assistance that the community had a safe and secure show to enjoy.”

Pictured (from left to right) are Supervisor Nolan; Councilman Gene Parrington; Inspector Jan L. Rios, Commanding Officer of the Third Precinct; Town Clerk Regina Duffy; Councilman Steve Flotteron; Captain William Read, Operations Office; Councilwoman Trish Bergin Weichbrodt; and Councilman John Edwards.